As part of daily life at Seymour College, photographs and recordings are taken of the many activities, projects and works in which your child and other children at Seymour College, are involved.

Photographs are taken for archival purposes, for promoting Seymour College in publications, such as, but not limited to, Seymour News, Tartan Talk, classroom displays and for our yearbook, Black Watch.

The College respects your privacy and therefore requests your permission to photograph and/or video your daughter and authored works for possible inclusion in our image library. The image(s) and recordings will remain the property of Seymour College. It will be assumed that your consent is given for an indefinite period of time or until you withdraw your authorisation.

It is important that this consent for publication is informed consent.

It should be understood that material published on the Web and via social media will be accessible to people worldwide and that the information can be copied and used by any internet user. The College has no control over the subsequent use and disclosure of information on its website or social media once that information is published. Seymour College endeavours to watermark any photographs displayed on social media to discourage distribution.

A student's intellectual property may include, but is not limited to, written work, artwork, photographs, videos, films, choreography, music, performance and recordings made by them or to which they contributed. It includes, but is not limited to, work created during the course of their enrolment in Seymour College. These materials may attract copyright.

The College understands that:

- Students generally own the intellectual property rights in the material they create;
- Any consent is not meant to transfer the students' ownership; and
- Consent gives the College permission to use the student's material for the purposes mentioned.

Your permission to the recording, use and disclosure of the individual work is required in accordance with the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) and the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006. Personal information will be stored securely.

New parents/caregivers and students will be asked to sign this form as part of the enrolments process. The consent will be deemed indefinite until revoked. Should you wish to alter your permission status at any stage, please notify Seymour College in writing at news@seymour.sa.edu.au

Please sign the following consent.

I, the undersigned, agree to and provide permission for the photography, video, audio or any other form of electronic recording of me and/or my child, for and on behalf of Seymour College.

I authorise and consent to the collection, storage, use and reproduction of any image or recording, referred to above, for the purposes of publishing materials related to the activities, programmes and services of Seymour College without acknowledgment and without being entitled to remuneration or compensation.

I grant permission to Seymour College to distribute, communicate to the public, publicly perform or display, modify, adapt, translate, upload, download in any form or manner, and incorporate any photograph/recording into other materials or works in any format or medium for any non-commercial purpose.

I also provide permission to Seymour College to archive my daughter's authored work(s), make copies of and/or publish the authored work in any form, in whole or in part. I understand that my daughter holds the intellectual property rights of work photographed/recorded, but grant Seymour College license to use them at no cost.

I understand that the image/recording may appear in print, electronic, or video media, and may be available to a global audience through the Internet. Images/recordings may also be provided to government departments for use in related publications.

I acknowledge that ownership of any image/recording will be retained by Seymour College and that this consent is for an indefinite period of time. I also acknowledge that this consent form revokes and replaces all previous photography consent forms.

If published, reproduced and communicated, I acknowledge that for privacy purposes my daughter or her work may be identified.

I understand and agree that I can withdraw my consent at any time but I must do so in writing to The Director of Marketing and Communication, Seymour College, 546 Portrush Road, Glen Osmond SA 5064 or news@seymour.sa.edu.au

This Consent Form must be signed by the parent/caregiver and any child in Year 6 or above.

To assist us in our planning, please return this Permission Form to Seymour College as soon as possible.

☐ I consent to my daughter being photographed for publications and publicity material of Seymour College.

☐ I consent to my daughter being photographed or recorded on video for uploading via social media for Seymour College.

Name of student: .................................................................

2017 Year level: ......................................................................

Student signature (required for all students in Year 6 or over):
..............................................................................................

Parent/Caregiver name: ................................................................

Relationship to the above student: ...........................................

Signature: ...................................................................................

Date: ........................................................................................