

Board Members

Voluntary role

About Seymour

Seymour College's vision is for women of strength, optimism and justice, confident for the future.

Located on a magnificent campus in Adelaide's eastern suburbs, Seymour College (founded in 1922 as Presbyterian Girls' College) is an independent non-selective girls' day and boarding school affiliated with the Uniting church. The College has 950 enrolments from the Early Years (from six weeks of age) to Year 12. Up to 100 boarders can live on site.

About the Role

The Board of Seymour College provides leadership, strategic direction and oversight of management of the College. Due to the forthcoming retirement of long-standing Board members, the Board is seeking to appoint at least one experienced Board member with demonstrated expertise in Finance, Risk/Governance or Capital Works.

The Seymour College Board Charter provides further information on governance and the key roles and responsibilities of the Board. The Charter and further information about Seymour College are available on our website www.seymour.sa.edu.au

Membership of the Seymour Board is a voluntary role. Seymour College is committed to diversity and inclusiveness and welcomes applications from people with diverse backgrounds both within and outside the College community.

For further information about the position or to submit an application please address correspondence to nominations@seymour.sa.edu.au

Applications will close at 5.00pm on Friday 3 December 2021.

strength optimism justice seymour.