

Roy and Marjory Edwards Scholarships 2024 (for Northern Territory residents)

2024 Roy and Marjory Edwards Scholarships (for Northern Territory residents)

Boarders from the Northern Territory have helped to build the culture and community of Seymour College for many years.

We welcome applications from residents of the Northern Territory, who are not currently enrolled at the College, who can demonstrate solid all-round capabilities and who have a willingness to contribute to boarding life and the College.

These scholarships are awarded to students entering Years 8 to 11 in 2024.

Applications open: Monday 5 September 2022

Applications close: Thursday 27 October 2022

Eligibility criteria:

- Students need to reside in the Northern Territory
- Have financial and/or economic/social circumstances
- Have demonstrated academic capability
- Open to Australian residents only

Applicant requirements

- A letter, in the student's own words, stating reasons for applying for the scholarship and outlining current and future goals.
- Presentation of a portfolio outlining co-curricular involvement.
- NAPLAN (if completed) and school report data for two years.
- Two references from a Principal/teacher/coach.

The scholarship application is to be emailed to enrolments@seymour.sa.edu.au

Shortlisted candidates will be required to have an interview with the Principal as part of the application process.

The Roy and Marjory Edwards Scholarships offer a 50% fee remission on tuition for the length of the enrolment. Full boarding fees apply.
