2028 Isolated Student Boarding Scholarship (for applicants in Year 7 or 8 in 2028)

Applications open: Monday 24 August 2026
Applications close: Friday 23 October 2026

For more than 104 years, Seymour College has provided opportunities for girls from rural and remote communities to access an exceptional education.

Seymour's strong reputation in boarding, academic achievement, pastoral care and co-curricular opportunities provides students from isolated communities with the opportunity to thrive in a supportive, all-girls environment. The scholarship recognises students who demonstrate academic potential, strong personal character and a genuine commitment to contributing to the life of the College.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- seeking entry into Year 7 or Year 8 in 2028;
- an Australian resident;
- eligible to receive the Australian Government Assistance for Isolated Children (AIC) Boarding Allowance. Preference will be given to students currently enrolled in a School of the Air or an online learning program; and
- a student who is not currently attending Seymour College.

Applicant Requirements

Applicants must demonstrate the below:

- Commitment to learning – demonstrated academic potential, consistent progress.
- Personal character – demonstrating resilience, independence, initiative and a commitment to giving their very best in all situations.
- Community spirit – a willingness to build positive relationships, support others and contribute to the inclusive and welcoming culture in the Boarding House and day school.
- Problem-solving and resilience – the ability to overcome challenges and confidently embrace the opportunities that come with boarding and living away from home.
- Seymour values – demonstrating a willingness to live out the College's values of Excellence, Respect and Innovation as well as the spirit of Crescam Ministrando – I grow by serving, through service, participation and consideration of others.

Applicant requirements

- A letter, in the student's own words, outlining reasons for applying, current and future goals, and a portfolio showcasing the skills and experiences gained from life in a remote area.
- Copies of the two most recent school reports and NAPLAN results.
- A recent photo of the applicant

Shortlisted candidates will be invited to interview with the Principal which can be online or in person.

This scholarship offers a 50% discount on boarding fees for the duration of the student's schooling.
